LAURIE MCBRIDE SCHOLARSHIP

Application Deadline is March 15, 2020

The Laurie McBride Scholarship offers an award up to $7,500 for the 2020-21 academic year to a qualified junior or senior or classified graduate student. Open to all majors at Sac State. The scholarship is named for long-time LGBTQ lobbyist and activist Laurie McBride. Laurie was a leading advocate and instrumental in pushing for protections for the LGBTQ community. Funded by the Stonewall Foundation of Greater Sacramento, the scholarship aims to support emerging advocates who understand that fighting for equality requires ongoing commitment and resolve.

Award: Scholarship up to $7,500 for the 2020-21 academic year

Criteria: Students in their junior or senior year or Classified Graduates

Apply:

- Overall GPA of 3.0 or better
- Required to submit a 500-1000 word essay describing “how you are an advocate for LGBTQ rights in the community, and how you plan to continue to advance LGBTQ equity, including involvement with any on-campus (e.g., Pride Center; ASI; and Office of Inclusive Excellence) and/or off-campus entities (e.g., Gender Health Center, Sacramento LGBT Community Center, etc.)”

Applications with an attached letter of support from a campus or community agency engaged in LGBTQ advocacy will be viewed favorably.
